VASILIKIA FARM

Location: Pavliani Fthiotis

The delightful wooden Cottages, which would not be out of place on an American mountain ranch, and the Country House, with the look of a farmstead somewhere in central Europe or the English countryside, are unique in terms of layout, furnishings and fittings. Certain aspects of the farm – such as the organic garden, the pond with its dam and wooden bridge, the rock garden full of herbs, the tree house, the stone fountain and the natural spring fed by water from a mountain peak deep in the national park – help create a truly idyllic setting that is far from commonplace.

The chapel with its bell tower, which looks like it has been lifted from an Alpine slope, the Taverna Lodge, where guests can enjoy meals, snacks and drinks or play games beside the wood-burning stove, the stable with its traditional wooden facade reminiscent of Normandy and a hayloft full of authentic ethnic memorabilia, the charming rabbit hutch, the tractor shed, the stone-built pen and drinking trough for the sheep and goats, the cheese dairy, the poultry house and pond for the ducks, geese, turkeys, chickens and guinea fowl which roam freely, all serve to confirm Vasilikia’s credentials as a genuine working farm.

THE LEAST BEST KEPT BEAUTY SECRET

*OF KENSINGTON AND

is fresh and French !

From Hollywood to Dubai, men and women from the four corners of the world come to benefit from his miracle treatments. Dr. Antoni Calmon, the new associate of the famous Dr. Dray clinic, this 31 year-old French dermatologist is a proclaimed prodigy from the new generation of cosmetic doctors. His talent? Achieve astonishing results without ever having to use a scalpel. His speciality entails every part of the body, from head to toe. The time when only hands could tell a patient's age is over.

New techniques in bio-resorbable threads combined with the revolution of focus ultrasound treatments produce incredible results. They efficiently improve the tightening of sagging tissue around the body, neck, and face in one session. Based on the stimulation of endogenous collagen and the tightening of tissue, they allow skin to obtain a revitalized appearance. First and foremost, they produce a lifting effect, and in certain cases, a final result as spectacular as that obtained by surgery - especially for the neck and facial contours. Composed of L-Polyactic acid, the tightening threads dissolve naturally into the skin after several months, leaving collagen, for a visible effect lasting 1 to 2 years.

Thread tightening, along with new generation focused ultrasounds, stimulating collagen and inducing visible cutaneous contraction within 45 days, casts a shadow on surgical lifting which are no longer considered necessary. These state-of-the-art techniques practiced by Dr. Calmon are the key to a totally natural result.

Here, the French Touch makes all the difference seeing that no one will suspect any type of procedure. It is no coincidence that actresses and international celebrities come to the Kensington clinic - or the oh so chic Avenue Montaigne in Paris - to benefit from these treatments.

In less than 45 minutes, your features are rested and rejuvenated. Your only preoccupation will be figuring out what to wear tonight.

LUXURY RESIDENCES

Located at the famous beach of Panormos in the island of Mykonos, the Luxury Residences is a recently renovated villa complex and the latest property investment of our very own Luxury Group.

This exceptional holiday accommodation is considered being the perfect example of the spectacular effects resulting from the fusion of natural assets, traditional architecture and modern inspiration.

The whitewashed walls alternate with areas of plain stone and the bold geometric forms give their way to soft curves and high arches that create an almost abstract, stage-set quality typical of the Myconian architecture.

Just in front of our villas, Panormos is a beautiful, long sandy cove with poofs and sunbeds. It's relaxed atmosphere makes it popular with the "in crowd" including celebrities and the international jet set.

This ex-hippy nudist haunt is reminiscent of old Mykonos and is the place to be for the incredible August full moon party.
